

The Cistercian Informer

Volume 47 | Issue 4

Friends, Cistercians, Countrymen ...

The good news is that people are now reading The Cistercian Informer! Whether on the smartboard in founders hall, on www.CistercianInformer.org, or through our Facebook page, we are reaching hundreds of students, parents and alumni. We are very grateful for your time and support.

Even better, the majority of the feedback has been very positive. (Shout out to Sra. Hernandez for providing the first real comment on an online article!)

Unfortunately, in our eagerness to create an entertaining and engaging publication on a weekly basis, we have written a few pieces that were considered controversial by some of our readers, inadvertently labeled a few Opinion pieces as news stories, and printed a few jokes in "By the Numbers" that probably should have been left on the editing room floor.

That said, the goal of The Cistercian Informer is to serve as a voice for our students, written by our students. Our publication offers the Cistercian student perspective on both world issues and events on campus, written in the unique voice of our high school writers.

Most importantly, the paper serves as an invitation to new and insightful conversations among the students, both on campus and online. We encourage everyone to comment on our Facebook posts and on our Web site. If you believe that your opinion is not being represented in the publication, we especially invite you to join us on Tuesday and Friday at 2:45 in the Library classroom. We'd love to include your voice in the paper!
