

The Cistercian Informer

Volume 48 | Issue 2

www.CistercianInformer.com

Photograph via HerFamily.ie

Freshman Baptism

By: Jacob Rombs

Last Friday night, the Hawks celebrated a commanding victory. Following the tradition of so many classes before, the seniors and freshmen participated in the annual “Baptism”, which is the welcoming ceremony for all freshmen coming into high school. Both students and Form Master participate in the Cistercian tradition of being thrown into a swimming pool by the members of the senior class. Though there were several close calls throughout the process, every freshman entered the pool safely, and no injuries were obtained.

The highlight of the night was when Fr. Philip, the Form Master of Form V...

Visit www.CistercianInformer.com to read more.

This Week's Articles

- The Nest: Freshman Baptism
- The Nest: Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, Lend Me Your Ears!
- Sports: CPS vs John Cooper
- Sports: High Spirits From an Injured Hawk

BY THE NUMBERS

NUMBER OF WHEELS ON TYRONE SWOOPES

 18

NUMBER OF DAYS THE CRYPT HAS BEEN UNDER CONSTRUCTION

 101

NUMBER OF POINTS CPS GAVE UP TO JOHN COOPER

 0

NUMBER OF COLLEGES VISITING THIS WEEK

 40

NUMBER OF GORILLAS UNJUSTLY KILLED

 2 MANY

Help from

Harambe

Cistercian students say...

Where do babies come from?

Harambe say...

Gud kwestion smol human!! For many years I wondered this myself. To answer this kwestion, wee must first ask where do baybees NOT come frum?

Go to cistercianinformer.com to find out more

Peas out for Harambe